Peconic Estuary Partnership
Water Quality Monitoring Collaborative Meeting

Thursday, December 3rd
10:00am - 12:00pm

Location:
Join via Zoom Link

Agenda:
10:00: Welcome: Joyce Novak PhD, Executive Director PEP

10:05: Introductions & Re-cap of the PEP Water Quality Monitoring Strategy and the role of the Collaborative

10:10: PEP updates on water quality monitoring strategy: Hannah Collins PhD, Project Specialist PEP

- Water quality annual report and summary
- Water quality app

10:20: Suffolk County updates on surface water and groundwater monitoring: Nancy Pierson & Anthony Caniano, Suffolk County Department of Health Services

10:35: Harmful Algal Blooms in Peconic Estuary Embayments: Chris Gobler PhD, SUNY Distinguished Professor & Endowed Chair of Coastal Ecology & Conservation, Stony Brook University SOMAS; Director, New York State Center for Clean Water Technology

11:05: Future directions for PEP Water Quality Reporting: Hannah Collins PhD, Project Specialist PEP | All members

- Review of future directions from the PEP Water Quality Monitoring Strategy
- Incorporation of:
    - Priority Embayments

    - Peconic River
    - HABs
- Open discussion and recommendations from collaborative members

11:50: Discussion of future Water Quality Monitoring Collaborative meetings

Action: Collaborative decide on timing and frequency of future meetings

12:00 Adjourn